Dear fellow Hashers – 'Lend me your Beers',

Hunnybun & Ho-Chi-Minh late of the Wessex H3, infamous for its Saga Louts, Artists & excess cruelty on the trails now live in the small 'Frontier style' coastal town of San Juan de Los Terreros, East of Mojacar x 35 kms. 45 minutes drive.

H' & Ho' would like to propose running a Hash around / near this town, to include:-

- Mountain climbing.
- Valley Floor running.
- Forest walking.
- Beach Beer Stopping.
- Clifftop running.
- Castle storming (Not obligatory as Concierge armed, 4 rotwiellers & psychotic).

This should all be achievable within a six mile course / two hours approximately. The trail would be laid on local 'safe' paths and not intrude on agricultural lands or the local population.

Personal Protection Required:

Good footwear and a good life insurance policy if intending to visit the local antiquities.

H' & Ho' are happy to cater for a Circle of 30+ runners, BarB'Q / Alfresco style, and yes the swimming pool is now up and running, but the high diving board has had to be returned as the Fire escape. The run can start from Casa 'Mark-Time' as a Pit-Stop might be required after the bus journey from Mojacar and can be used as a forward base / Aid station for Hashers wanting to explore the town later in the day.

We look forward to meeting up with you all over in England plus all are welcome here anytime, we will be glad to assist with any general inquiries, Spain, holidays, hospital food accommodations, tax evasion, bail etc etc.

Yours sincerely

Hunnybun & Ho Chi Minh.
